

Monica Smaltz

Monica Smaltz is a dedicated community leader and volunteer, deeply committed to enhancing the wellbeing of our community in the Finger Lakes region. She has held significant roles including serving as the Secretary for the Finger Lakes Health Foundation Board, where she leveraged her skills in fundraising and strategic planning. Monica's long-standing involvement with the Athena Scholarship Board, where she has served as Vice President and has been contributing for seven years, underscores her dedication to educational and professional development initiatives. In addition to her board roles, Monica has been an active volunteer with Safe Harbours of the Finger Lakes, with their mission of providing support to those affected by domestic violence. Her passion for animal welfare is evident through her work with Fetch a Friend, Geneva Bark Park and the Yates County Animal Rescue. Monica's volunteer efforts extend to various other programs aimed at improving community health and vitality, emphasizing her deep commitment to making a positive impact in our region.

Monica has also been the spirited leader of a thriving book club for young women for nearly a decade, cultivating a vibrant community of readers and thinkers. Utilizing exceptional organizational skills and a passion for literature, she masterfully curates engaging discussions that foster personal growth and connection among members. Monica's dedication to empowering young women has made her book club a beloved haven of friendship, inspiration and learning.
